Note: This Challenge/Protest Form is a public record and will be reviewed by the Broward County Canvassing Board in a public meeting. The Canvassing Board is charged with overseeing the orderly canvassing of votes during an election and is empowered to take actions to prevent interference with that process. Bad faith or frivolous challenges/protests that interfere with the casting of lawful votes or interfere with the orderly canvassing during an election may subject the individual making the challenge and/or the candidate, political party, or political committee they are the designee of to adverse consequences from the Canvassing Board and/or under Florida law.
