CRIMINAL OFFENSE: It is a 3rd degree felony to submit false information. Maximum penalties are $5,000 and/or 5 years in prison.

PUBLIC RECORD: Once filed, all information including your phone number and email address will become public record for the following which can only be used for voter registration purposes: your FL DL, FL ID, SSN, where you registered to vote, and whether you have been convicted of a felony, or have been found to be mentally incapacitated as to your right to vote. You cannot register until your right to vote is restored.

Deadline to Register: The deadline to register to vote is 29 days before any election. You can update your registration record at any time, but for a Primary Election, party changes must be completed 29 days before that election. You will be contacted if your new application is incomplete, denied or a duplicate of an existing registration. Your Voter Information Card will be mailed to you once you are registered.

Identification (ID) Requirements: New applicants must provide a current and valid Florida driver’s license number (FL DL) or Florida identification card number (FL ID). If you do not have a FL DL or FL ID, then you must provide the last four digits of your Social Security number (SSN). If you do not have any of these numbers, check “None.” If you leave the field and box blank, your new registration may be denied. See Section 97.053(8), Fla.Stat.

Special ID requirements: If you are registering by mail, have never voted in Florida, and have never been issued one of the ID numbers above, include one of the following with your application, or at a later time before you vote:

Political Party Affiliation: Florida is a closed primary election state. In primary elections, registered voters can only vote for the candidate of the party they are registered with. In a primary election, all registered voters can only vote for the candidate of their registered party’s candidate in the partisan race on the ballot. In a general election, all registered voters, regardless of party affiliation, can vote on any issue, nonpartisan race, and race where a candidate faces no opposition in the General Election. If you do not indicate your party affiliation, you will be registered with no party affiliation.
